Equine Veterinarian Agnes Banks Equine Clinic www.abec.net.au

Agnes Banks Equine Clinic is currently seeking applicants for an equine veterinarian. The caseload is varied and includes general ambulatory practice, lameness, surgery, reproduction and poor performance (sport horses and racehorses). Agnes Banks Equine Clinic is well staffed with experienced veterinarians, specialist surgeons, interns and veterinary nurses. The practice is located approximately 70 km from Sydney in a semi-rural environment, with good access to the city.

The position is full-time and includes participation in a rotating after hours on call roster.

The successful applicant would demonstrate the ability to strive for excellence, work well in a team and deliver high-level veterinary care at all levels. The veterinarian must have experience of a minimum of one year in equine veterinary practice and be competent at routine ambulatory calls as well as poor performance and lameness evaluations. Experience in performing equine general anaesthesia is also highly desirable. A veterinary degree registrable in New South Wales is essential, as is excellent communication and clinical service attributes.

Remuneration package: A base salary of a minimum of $70,000 (plus superannuation, motor vehicle, continuing education package, mobile phone, and professional membership fees paid) and commensurate with qualifications and experience salary will be negotiated with the successful candidate.

Closing Date: the closing date for applications is when a suitable applicant is identified.
